73	From the –	Furnishing an explanation of the opinions offered by him formerly on the subject of the Committal of Europeans to Goal and to the House of Correction, and stating that the remedy suggested by the Honorable Court of Directors of a measure enabling the Magistrates to sentence to Goal Europeans convicted under the Police Regulations will not meet the case of Europeans sentenced to the House of Correction as required by the Act of 5th & 6th Wm. 4th Chap 19. and that no measure of the Indian Governments can alter the provisions of that Statute.	Dy. 20 Nov. 1841	11 Jany.	No. 1
79.		All that seems necessary is to put the House of Correction in a fit state to receive Europeans – The inaptitude of the present building for that purpose and the fact of its not being susceptible of any material improvement have been brought to the notice of the Honorable Court of Directors in the Public Department with a recommendation for building a Penitentiary and Justices' Jail – Government resolve therefore to communicate this letter to the Honorable Court.	7 Jany. 1842		No 2.
87.	From the –	Stating that he concurs in the opinion expressed by the Collector and Magistrate of Malabar that a Native subject of this Government having been sold by another native subject as a slave at Judda is not a slave dealing within the provision of the statute 5th Geo: 4th Cap: 113. but that he considers this to be a case of that "Great personal violence" committed by one subject against another as to bring the offender within the provisions of Regulation 2 of 1829.	14 Decr. 1841	11 Jany. 527. From the — Stating for the reasons detailed, that the proceeding in the case tried by Mr Harris could not legally be had before a Justice of the Peace, and that it ought to be treated as a trial before a Magistrate of a Mofussil Court, and that it may be appealed from accordingly — Do 19 Feby 1842. Do 25 Feby No 27

533 — Communicated to the Fouzdarree Adalut who will adopt the necessary measures in view to the convict in the case being treated and appealed from as the Conviction of a Magistrate. The Judges will also issue such Circular instructions as may appear to be called for by the opinion expressed by the Advocate General. — Do No 28.

2329. From the — Stating that a motion was made to the Sitting Judge at Chambers for a Habeas Corpus to bring up Lieutenant Charles Mann sentenced to 2 years imprisonment by Court Martial for Manslaughter founded on a formal objection taken to the language of the Warrant, and submitting that it is very expedient he should appear on behalf of Government to oppose the discharge sought, with a view to the ends of public justice. — Do 25 April.
